OVERVIEW

Ben Larson represents business clients across a broad range of complex commercial litigation matters. Starting in the Greene Espel mail room and putting himself through law school at night, Ben brings his exceptional work ethic and relentless dedication to bear for the firm's clients.

While working full time, Ben graduated, summa cum laude, from Mitchell Hamline School of Law, where he achieved Dean's List honors every semester. Ben also served as a Managing Editor and member of the Diversity Committee for the Mitchell Hamline Law Review. After law school, Ben clerked for The Honorable Jon Schmidt at the Minnesota Court of Appeals—and he brings his clerkship experience to his work with clients.
